FORT KNOX SERGEANT ARRESTED ON CHILD MOLESTATION, PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES ICE agents lead investigation efforts of accused child predator

FORT KNOX, Ky. — An Army sergeant based here was arrested last week on charges of child molestation and child pornography, announced Michael A. Holt, special agent-in-charge of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) office in New Orleans, and David L. Huber, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky,

Joseph Anthony Glover, aka Joey Glover, aka Joe Glover, 34, of the 5600 block Gilkey St., Fort Knox, Ky., was arrested Dec. 1 without incident near his residence located. According to the affidavit of an FBI special agent, federal agents became aware of Glover's unlawful activities as a result of a related investigation by the Memphis Crimes Against Children Task Force ("MCACTF") which identified that Joey Glover had sent images of child pornography over the Internet and had advised that he was sexually molesting a child. He also indicated that he was a member of the military. The commercial database Lexis Nexus provided Glover's location information.

"Glover's arrest reinforces the fact that ICE agents are continuously vigilant on all fronts, especially when it comes to dealing with sexual predators," said ICE Special Agent-in-Charge Michael A. Holt. "This arrest should serve as a wake-up call to individuals who prey on innocent children. ICE has an ongoing and active national initiative called Operation Predator testifying to our commitment that this type behavior will not be tolerated."

If convicted, Glover faces a mandatory minimum sentence of 15 years' imprisonment and a potential penalty of life imprisonment, a $750,000.00 fine, and supervised release for a period of any term of years up to and including life. There is no parole in the federal judicial system.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Jo E. Lawless and Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Trent Sandifur are prosecuting the case. Agents of the Department of Homeland Security Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), the Memphis Crimes Against Children Task Force (“MCACTF”), Memphis Police Department, the FBI, and the U.S. Army Criminal Investigations Division at Fort Knox, Ky., investigated the case.

Glover is scheduled to appear before U.S. Magistrate Judge James D. Moyer today for a preliminary hearing and detention hearing. Magistrate Judge Moyer ordered Glover detained in the custody of the U.S. Marshals Service pending the hearings on Monday afternoon.

A criminal Complaint is an accusation only and that person is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
